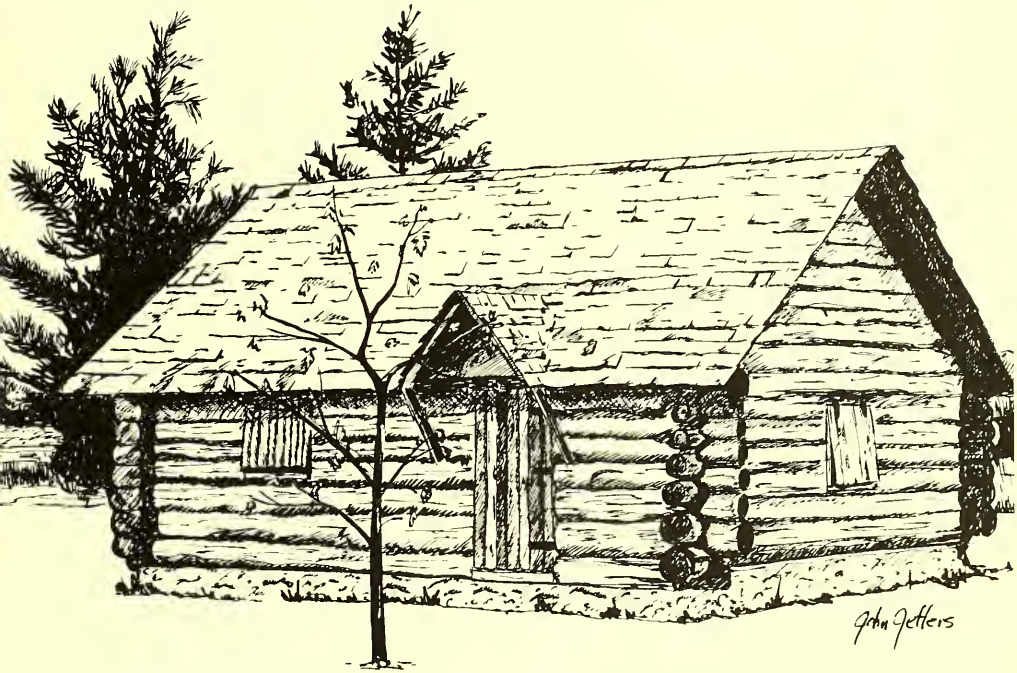
SPECTRUM '77



The Whitko Bicentennial Log Cabin - dedicated on November 24, 1976

WHITKO HIGH SCHOOL
WEST WAYNE STREET
SOUTH WHITLEY, INDIANA

The "Pioneer Spirit"

The log cabin was built as a community Bicentennial project; in February '76, the first log was cut. By duplicating the original methods of construction, students saw how difficult life as a pioneer could be. Almost 100% of the materials were donated by interested community members, who also gave of their time, advice, and tools. Very special recognition is given to Mr. Luke Hunt, Biology teacher, who was responsible for every aspect of the cabin and donated a great amount of time and energy.

Seniors Survive

Remember when we weren't ''mighty'' Seniors?

What'cha hidin' for Janet; ashamed of your locker?

A typical Government class: some TRY to look busy and others . . . ?

Funky Faculty

Welcome to the Faculty Bakery!

Working hard to hold up the wall, Mr. Baird?

Enjoying the party, Mrs. Boley?

As unbelievable as it is, it looks as though you survived your first year here.

You really trust these guys enough to turn your back to them, R.V.?

Underclassmen Unite

You girls all look really wide awake!

Hey Felicia and Angie, do you always dress like that?

Have you found a solution or are you still thinking about it?

Congratulations, JoEllen!

Your "kids" seem to be enjoying the afternoon as much as the Sunshine girls.

Underclass girls in action; looks like a good shot.

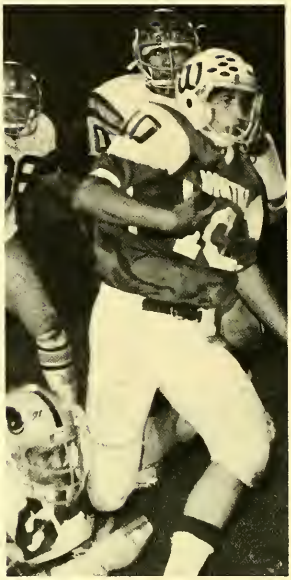
Angie and Mrs. Hess are obviously enjoying the Ideal Lady's Tea.

Penny, are you eating again or STILL!

It's obvious these kids still like being outdoors; possibly a mild case of ''Spring Fever''

Winning Wildcats

Lookin' Good, Holly.



On for a touchdown!

Heave Ho!

Pour it on, Amy.

Is that gonna be a hole-in-one, Mitch?

Flip him, Jerry

Super Wildcats

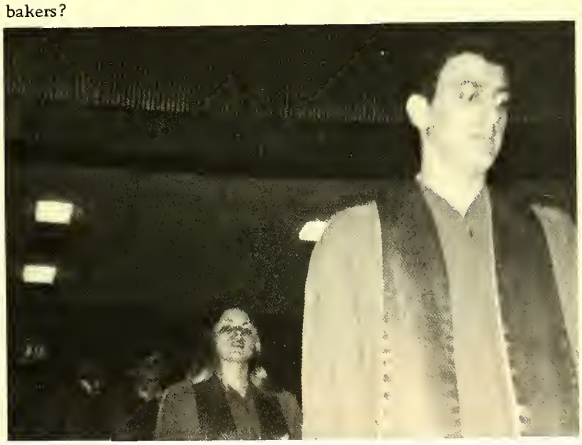
Busy Students Participate

Hey Pam, Doesn't Mr. Boyer look like an official auctioneer with that megaphone?

What's the verdict, Mitch, are they good bakers?

Don't spill the punch, girls!

Wayne Street Singers finish one of many performances.



Old National Honor Society members file in at the Induction Ceremony.

Stairway to Memories . . .

Jr.-Sr. Prom

Seniors Take Over Capitol

Move over you guys, people want to see the monument, NOT you!

Looks like your day of fun has already begun.

Painting your nails is one way to conquer boredom, right Mary?

Melanie, Diane and Pam sure look wide-awake for 7 a.m.

Pam, were you THAT surprised to see Jefferson at the Memorial? What were you expecting?

There are some drawbacks to sitting in the front seat, aren't there, Chris and Kerry?

Our Memories Of Mr. Egner

On November 23, 1976, Mr. Gardner Egner died of a heart attack. He served as Whitko's Guidance Counselor from the schools' beginning; he also taught Driver's Education during the summer. Because of his teaching positions he came into contact with almost all of us at sometime or another. We will miss him, but we'll cherish those memories we have of him forever.

This year the Wildcats wrestlers sent two to regionals--Tim Yingst and Tim Glore.

The team also boasted one conference champ, Don Ellison, who was also voted captain.

Only two will be lost by graduation Don Ellison and Jerry Kreger.

Soph. Tim Yingst collected two trophies at the end of the year "Most Valuable" and "Most Pins."

"Fastest Pin" trophy went to Jr. Tony Phillips.

Although the team ended the season with four wins-six losses Coach Forsberg is looking forward to a winning season next year.
